Name _____

Flower Power

Alicia has 3 vases. She wants 9 flowers in each vase.
She goes to the flower shop and buys enough flowers for 2 vases. For the third vase, she cuts 9 flowers from her garden.

1. How many flowers are in all 3 vases? What is the multiplication sentence?

   _____

2. Draw an array to show the multiplication fact.

3. How many flowers did she buy for 2 vases? Write the multiplication sentence.

   _____

4. How many flowers did she cut from her garden for the last vase? Write the multiplication sentence.

   _____

5. Explain how you can break apart arrays when you multiply by 3.

   _____

   _____

6. Show another strategy you can use to find the product 3 × 9.

   _____

   _____

   _____