

SETTING IN NONFICTION

A memoir is about real events in the author’s life. The setting in a memoir is like the setting in fiction. It includes details of time and place that help a reader picture the scene.

Directions: In the chart, record details from the memoir that describe the locations, seasons, and surroundings. Then circle the details that seem most vivid to you.

Details About Setting

Location	Seasons	Surroundings

Copyright by McDougal Littell, a division of Houghton Mifflin Company