GHOST OF THE LAGOON Reading Strategy

PREDICT

Writers often give their readers clues to help them predict or make a reasonable guess about what might happen in the story. To predict, combine details from the story with your own knowledge and experience.

Directions: As you read the story, write predictions in the first column of the chart. Write the clues from the story that helped you make your predictions. An example has been done for you.

My Predictions	Clues in Story
Mako will use his harpoon during the story.	Mako is clever; the harpoon he made is sharp and has five iron spears.
