PREVIEW

When you preview, you examine a text for what it is about and how it is organized. One way to preview is to skim text features quickly, looking over the title, subheadings, footnotes, vocabulary definitions, and graphic aids. Previewing helps you focus on the most important ideas.

Directions: In the chart, note the information you get as you preview each text feature.

Text Feature	What I Learn from Previewing the Information
1. Title
2. Subheadings
3. Footnotes
