

Context Clues: Using All Types

ACADEMIC VOCABULARY

context clue: words or phrases near an unfamiliar word that help readers figure out the word's meaning definition clue: directly tells the meaning of the word restatement clue: restates the meaning of the word in easier language comparison clue: suggests the meaning of a word by telling what it is like contrast clue: suggests the meaning of a word by telling what it is unlike cause-and-effect clue: describes a cause or effect related to a word example clue: suggests a word's meaning with one or more examples

HERE'S HOW

Step 1: Identify the word. Ask yourself: Which word is unfamiliar?

Step 2: Use context. You can often tell a word's meaning from context. Look for related words, phrases, or sentences surrounding an unfamiliar word.

Step 3: Look for context clues. Clues of different types are often signaled by particular words and punctuation marks. Study the chart below.

Type of Clue	Signal Words	Punctuation	Example
Definition	this means, that is, or, also known as, also called, defined as,	, -	Anthropology, or the study of human cultures, is Fred's favorite subject.
Restatement	is, are, meaning, in other words,	, - () :	Ann sauntered along— as if she had all the time in the world.
Comparison	like, as, similar to, not unlike, resembling, reminiscent, similarly		Like a stone falling down a well, the temperature plummeted.
Contrast	unlike, but, in contrast to, different from, instead, on the other hand, except for		Ed thought he would be tired after supper, but instead he felt surprisingly vivacious.

STUDENT LESSON SUMMARY, CONTINUED

Type of Clue	Signal Words	Punctuation	Example
Cause-and-effect	since, because, so, as a result, due to, thus	, :	Since Sue is eloquent , she is in demand to give toasts.
Example	such as, especially, like, for instance for example, including	- :	The class rep used such rhetoric as repetition and appeals to pride .

Step 4: Define the unfamiliar word. Write the word and its definition in a special vocabulary notebook. Try using the word in a sentence.